

This is a list of public areas of refuge that may be utilized during times of severe weather. These areas are opened during Tornado Warnings on an as needed basis. Anyone utilizing these areas is responsible for ensuring their own travel to and from. There is no guarantee of personal safety for those persons who utilize them. The public is encouraged to make private arrangements for sheltering needs and to monitor weather alerts systems for situational awareness of ongoing conditions. Places of employment, a personal church or a neighbor might offer a place of refuge during severe weather. All listed establishments operate on a space available basis.

You may contact the department of Emergency Management (620) 272-3746 or (620) 272-3747 for additional information on sheltering alternatives.
